Dunstable Rep Theatre Club Data Privacy Policy

1. YOUR PERSONAL DATA - WHAT IS IT?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. WHO ARE WE?

The Dunstable Rep Theatre Club (The Rep) is the data controller. This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. HOW DO WE PROCESS YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

The Rep complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data. We use your personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our rules and constitution
- To administer membership records
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the club
- To manage our members, patrons and audience
- To maintain our own accounts and records
- To inform you of news, events and activities produced by The Rep and other similar organisations

4. WHAT IS THE LEGAL BASIS FOR PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, and activities and process your bookings. Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit club and there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. SHARING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of The Rep for purposes connected with our productions or productions you are involved with. We will only share your data with third parties outside of The Rep with your consent.

6. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

We will retain your data permanently or until you tell us you no longer wish to be informed of our activities.
